Anti-Corruption Policy – IIT Madras

IIT Madras is an institution under the Ministry of Education, Government of India. All the anti-bribery and anti-corruption documents, instructions and orders issued by the government of India and her ministries are applicable to IIT Madras and her stakeholders

IIT Madras has a Chief Vigilance Officer (Part time) who is in charge of ensuring anti-corruption initiatives of the GoI. The details of the present CVO (P.T) are

Prof G Srinivasan
Department of Management Studies
gsrini@iitm.ac.in, cvo@iitm.ac.in
Desk: 4560, 8721 (official desk phone of the CVO)
Mobile: 9444901674, 9444008721 (official phone of the CVO)

The vigilance manual issued by the GoI is the document that details the roles and responsibilities of this officer in implementing anti-bribery, anti-corruption policies, orders and memorandum from the GoI and all matters related to vigilance and complaints.

The link to the Vigilance Manual that explains Vigilance Related matters as well as how to make complaints is given below:
